Re: CB2023.04.SX, 2023 Front Number Plate Logo Update

Effective Immediately:

The front number plate logo for both the 250SX and 450SX classes has been updated to include the series title sponsor rather than the supercross discipline designation. This update will take place beginning with Round 5 of the Monster Energy AMA Supercross Championship in Houston, TX and will continue throughout the remainder of the 2023 Monster Energy AMA Supercross Championship season.

Please see below for the updated images and correct logo usage:
